

Thursday, 21 October 2010

EASTERN BLOC

9.00–9.10 – Opening of the Conference

9.10–12.30 – Session I: Soviet Union

Chair – Dr Łukasz Kamiński (Poland)

- Prof. Mark Kramer (USA) – The Soviet Union, the Warsaw Pact and the Polish crisis of 1980–1981
- Prof. Anthony Kemp-Welch (Great Britain) – The Soviet responses to “Solidarity”, 1980–1989
- Petre Iskenderov (Russia) – Influence of “Solidarity” movement on the Soviet state and public opinion
- Dr Miklos Mitrovits (Hungary) – Attitude of the Soviet authorities to the Polish crisis. Why Soviet Army did not intervene in Poland, 1980–1981?
- Dr Levan Berdzenishvili (Georgia) – “Solidarity” in Gulag and among dissidents
- Doc. Natalia Minenkova (Ukraine) – “Solidarity” and the Ukrainian dissident movement
- Prof. Olena Shanovska (Ukraine) – Impact of opposition’s political culture in Poland and Ukraine on the result of resistance to Communist regimes
- Zbigniew Wojnowski (Great Britain) – Beneficiaries and benefactors: Polish “Solidarity” and Soviet patriotism in Ukraine, 1980–1982

14.30–17.45 – Session II: Satellite states

Chair – Dr Alfred Reisch (Hungary)

- Prof. Kostadin Grozev (Bulgaria) – The “Solidarity” movement in the files of the Bulgarian Secret Services, 1979–1981
- Dr Ion Constantin (Romania) – Romanians and “Solidarity”
- Dr Jarosław Tarasiński (Poland) – East German response for the rise and activity of “Solidarity” Trade Union
- Dr Bernd Schaefer (Germany) – The East German Stasi, the Catholic Church, and “Solidarity”, 1978–1989
- Dr Petr Blažek (Czech Republic) – Czechoslovakia and “Solidarity”, 1980–1982
- Dr János Tischler (Hungary) – Response of Hungarian authorities and opposition to “Solidarity”, 1980–1982
- Mihaela Toader (Romania) – “Solidarity” in Romanian exile press

- Dr Marek Czerwiński (Poland) – Events in Poland 1980–1981 as seen by Soviet, Czechoslovakian and East German press

18.00–19.30 – Roundtable discussion on structures and organizations supporting the “Solidarity” from abroad, part I

Mirosław Chojecki (Poland), Marcin Frybes (chair, France), Adam Kiernik (Poland), Jolanta Nitosławska (Mexico), Joanna Pilarska (Poland), Jakub Świącicki (Sweden)

Friday, 22 October 2010

WESTERN EUROPE

9.00–13.00 – Session III: Western Europe, part I

Chair – Dr Peter Opreș (Romania)

- Prof. Gerhard Besier (Germany) – Dual strategy of the Federal Republic of Germany: help for “Solidarity” and political support for Jaruzelski
- Dr José María Faraldo (Spain) – Spain and “Solidarity”: peculiarities of reception, consequences of exile
- Dr Janina Osses-Frei (Austria) – Austrian help for “Solidarity” at the beginning of 1980s
- Prof. Maria Pasztor (Poland) – Italian trade union movement and “Solidarity” (August 1980 – July 1983)
- Prof. Jacek Tebinka (Poland) – The policy of the government of Margaret Thatcher towards Poland, 1980–1989
- Marek Kunicki-Goldfinger (Poland) – Activity of the French Committee “Solidarité” France-Pologne and the involvement of the French society for Poland and “Solidarity”, 1980–1990
- Christie Miedema (Holland) – “De Polen hebben u broodnodig”: Dutch solidarity with “Solidarity” and the “Solidarity” Information Desk in Amsterdam
- Alexandra Gerota (France) – The “Solidarity” movement in French public opinion, 1980–1989
- Dominik Pick (Poland) – Federal Republic of Germany and “Solidarity”. Response of social Democrats and trade unions in West Germany at the creation of “Solidarity” and the martial law in Poland
- Kamil Dworaczek (Poland) – The Independent Students’ Association’s contacts with foreign students’ organizations, 1980–1981
- Dr Patryk Pleskot (Poland) – Powerful gestures, modest deeds. French diplomacy towards „Solidarity”, 1980–1989

15.00–19.30 – Session IV: Western Europe, part II

Chair – Dr hab. Paweł Jaworski (Poland)

- Dr Kim Christiaens (Belgium) – Ground for cooperation? The International Confederation of Free Trade Unions (ICFTU) and the World Confederation of Labour (WCL) towards the emergence, suspension and ban of “Solidarity”, 1980–1989
- Prof. Idesbald Goddeeris (Belgium) – The International Labour Organization and “Solidarity”
- Dr Bernd Rother (Germany) – Mixed feelings: West European Social Democrats’ reaction to “Solidarity”
- Dr Robert Brier (Germany) – “Communism is Fascism”: Western intellectual responses to the Polish crisis, 1981–1982
- Prof. Klaus Misgeld (Sweden) – A complicated solidarity: the Swedish labour movement and “Solidarity”
- Dr Stefan Ekecrantz (Sweden) – Understanding “Solidarity” – ideological interpretations of Swedish activists, 1980–1981

Chair – Prof. Klaus Misgeld (Sweden)

- Prof. Karl Molin (Sweden) – Making sense of the Polish Crisis. Swedish diplomats and the „Solidarity” movement, 1980–1981
- Dr hab. Paweł Jaworski (Poland) – Sweden facing the martial law in Poland
- Prof. Bent Boel (Denmark) – Denmark and solidarity with “Solidarity” 1980–1989 – so close and yet so far?
- Dr Jussi Jalonen (Finland) – Solidarity, finlandization and realpolitik: the Finnish attitudes towards the Polish labour movement in the 1980s
- Dr Frank Georgi (France) – Autogestion: the myth of self-managing socialism and the “French enthusiasm” for “Solidarity”
- Dr Andrzej Grajewski (Poland) – Holy See and the “Solidarity” movement, 1980–1989

Saturday, 23 October 2010

COUNTRIES OUTSIDE EUROPE AND POLISH IMMIGRATION

9.00–13.00 – Session V: Countries outside Europe

Chair – Dr Patryk Pleskot (Poland)

- Prof. Jakub Tyszkiewicz (Poland) – U.S. policy towards Poland, 1980–1989
- Dr Gregory Domber (USA) – The National Endowment of Democracy and American support networks for “Solidarity”, 1984–1989
- Marcin Frybes (France) – Americans and “Solidarity”, 1980–1989. Lane Kirkland and trade union AFL-CIO, POMOST social movement and committees CSSO, KPA and president Ronald Reagan’s administration members – what joined them together?
- Prof. Bernard Cook (USA) – The Catholic Church in the United States and “Solidarity”
- Eric Chenoweth (USA) – The role of the AFL-CIO in assisting “Solidarity”: financial, moral and political
- Fatih Tokatli (Turkey) – “Solidarity” as seen from Turkey: democracy, state and Turkish intellectual political debate around Poland
- Dr Małgorzata Bonikowska (Canada) – Social and political reactions to Solidarity in Canada
- Prof. Rakesh Batabyal (India) – Countering hegemony: location of Polish “Solidarity” movement in the memory of Indians
- Przemysław Gasztold-Seń (Polska) – Arabian countries and “Solidarity”
- Prof. Péter Vámos (Hungary) – The “Solidarity” movement and China, 1980–1989

15.00–17.40 – Session VI: Polish Immigration

Chair – Dr Krzysztof Persak (Poland)

- Dr hab. Joanna Wojdon (Poland) – Polish Americans’ attitude to “Solidarity”, 1980–1989
- Dr Piotr Kardela (Poland) – The Association of Polish Veterans of World War II in the U.S. and “Solidarity”
- Dr Patryk Polec (Canada) – Accepting and accommodating change: the “Solidarity” Movement and Solidarity-immigrants in Canadian and Polish-Canadian society, 1980–2005
- Prof. Krzysztof Tarka (Poland) – “Polish” London facing “Solidarity”, 1980–1981
- Dr Paweł Sowiński (Poland) – Smuggled literature. How immigration and the Western world helped to create underground publication market in the times of “Solidarity”
- Łukasz Paweł Wolak (Poland) – Polish Refugees Union in Germany facing Solidarity-immigrants
- Dr Janusz Wróbel (Poland) / Izabela Iwanowska (USA) – Polish and American Chicago facing the phenomenon of “Solidarity”, 1980–1989

18.00–19.30 – Roundtable discussion on structures and organizations supporting the “Solidarity” from abroad, part II

Dr Łukasz Kamiński (chair, Poland), Mirosław Domińczyk (Poland), Irena Lasota (USA), Józef Lebenbaum (Sweden), Jan Axel Stoltz (Sweden)